The Shirley Hui Memorial Fund

Mrs. Shirley Hui was born Shirley Manchu Tin in Hong Kong. She moved to Los Angeles to attend Pepperdine University, and in 1974 married Ka-Kit Hui, then a young medical student at UCLA, and now the Wallis Annenberg Professor in Integrative Medicine and the Founder and Director of the UCLA Center for East-West Medicine. As a partner and co-founder of the Center, Mrs. Hui maintained sustained and deep conviction of the benefits of integrative East-Medicine, and was a beneficiary of this approach before her passing in 2010.

The Shirley Hui Memorial Fund has been established to support education in integrative East-West medicine. Several award programs educational events have been created to open the doors of a range of study and professional advancement opportunities to highly motivated students, trainees, and healthcare professionals who aspire to improve healthcare with integrative medicine in their future careers.

Past and upcoming events and scholarship awardees sponsored by the Memorial Fund:

Conferences and Seminars

Student Conferences

- February 27, 2016: Fourth Annual Student Conference for Integrative Medicine at UCLA, themed “Practical Approaches to Wellness Through Integrative Medicine: Benefits for a Lifetime,” and co-sponsored by the student organization, Students for Integrative Medicine (SIM).
- February 28, 2015: Third Annual Student Conference for Integrative Medicine at UCLA, themed “Exploring Integrative Medicine from a Clinical to Global Scale,” and co-sponsored by the student organization, Students for Integrative Medicine (SIM).
- March 1, 2014: Second Annual Student Conference for Integrative Medicine at UCLA, themed “Science and Art of Whole-Person Healing for the 21st Century,” and co-sponsored by the student organization, Students for Integrative Medicine (SIM, formerly NCAM).
- February 2, 2013: First Annual Conference on Integrative Medicine at UCLA, themed “Your Role in I.M.,” and co-sponsored by the student organization, Nutrition, Complementary and Alternative Medicine (NCAM).
- October 22-23, 2011: First National Student Conference on Integrative Medicine, organized by the Medical Student Interest Group for Integrative Medicine at UCLA, the first conference at UCLA drew an attendance of over 150 students from multiple health disciplines, including medicine, dentistry and nursing across the country. This event has since been adopted by the National Consortium of Academic Health Centers for Integrative Medicine to become one of its satellite conferences for medical students and trainees.

Shirley Hui Memorial Lecture Series

- October 30, 2015: “Person-Centered Breast Cancer Patient Care” panel discussion moderated by Professor Ka-Kit Hui, MD, FACP, Director of UCLA Center for East-West Medicine (CEWM); featuring speakers Irene Kim, LAc, OMD, Clinical Specialist in Integrative Oncology at CEWM, as well as Janice Lu, MD, PhD, medical oncologist and Associate Clinical Professor at the UCLA Division of Hematology and Oncology.
- October 11, 2014: “Complementary Medicine Round Table Discussion” moderated by Professor Ka-Kit Hui, MD, FACP, at the 2nd Annual Living with Metastatic Breast Cancer Conference hosted by the Susan G. Komen Foundation
- October 14, 2013: “The Lulu Sessions Documentary Screening and Panel Discussion” moderated by Dr. Matthew Conolly, MD, panelists: Professor Ka-Kit Hui, MD, FACP, Director of UCLA Center for East-West Medicine; Casper Wong, Director and Filmmaker of The Lulu Sessions; Sharon Schlesinger, Champion and Advocate of Susan G. Komen Foundation
- October 4, 2012: “Research and Clinical Applications of Chinese Herbal Medicine: Challenges and Discoveries, a Panel Discussion” moderated by Professor Yung Chi (Tommy) Cheng, PhD, Henry Bronson Professor of Pharmacology, Yale University School of Medicine, Professor Chih Ming Ho, PhD, Ben Rich-Lockheed Martin Professor in UCLA School of Engineering, and Willow Liu, PhD, LAc, Chinese Medicine Practitioner and researcher in herbal medicine.
- October 3, 2012: “Mining Ancient Chinese Herbs for Cutting-Edge Therapies” by Professor Yung Chi (Tommy) Cheng, PhD, Henry Bronson Professor of Pharmacology, Yale University School of Medicine.
- October 22, 2011: “Reflections on Integrative and Chinese Medicine: Past, Present and Future” by Professor David Eisenberg, MD, Bernard Osher Distinguished Associate Professor of Medicine at Harvard Medical School, is a nationally renowned leader in the field of integrative medicine.

Scholarship Programs

- Scholarship to Attend Summer Course
  [With special collaboration by the West Los Angeles Veteran’s Administration and support from the Gerald Oppenheimer Family Foundation]
  Scholarship in the form of fee waivers will be made available to students who are enrolled in the introductory course on integrative East-West medicine in the summer at UCLA.

  Awardees
  Alison Dale Neymark, NP, West Los Angeles VA
  Daniel Garcia, MD, West Los Angeles VA
  Hea Lan Yoon, RN, West Los Angeles VA
  Laura Sharpe, Artists For Trauma
  Lisa S. Grace, GNP, West Los Angeles VA
  Patrice A. Mullany, NP, West Los Angeles VA
  Gitta V. Patel, West Los Angeles VA
  Rashmi Mullur, MD, West Los Angeles VA
  Maureen Genette, West Los Angeles VA
  Young Chung, MD, West Los Angeles VA
Shirley Hui East-West Medicine Visiting Scholar

Awardees
Jing (Crystal) Zhao, MD, PhD, Chinese Academy of Chinese Medical Sciences (CACMS)

Dr. Zhao is the first Visiting Scholar to be supported by the Shirley Hui Memorial Fund. The fund has allowed Dr. Zhao to contribute to the development of the Center’s training programs for undergraduates, medical students, and fellows, and also to the development of a documentary and papers that will enable the Western world to appreciate Chinese medicine’s approach to dealing with infectious disease.

Shirley Hui East-West Medicine Scholar

The Shirley Hui Scholar is granted an opportunity to travel to China to spend about 1-2 months to visit and study integrative East-West medicine at a medical center, working on collaborative projects under the guidance of leading experts.

Awardees
Tony Hung, 4th Year Medical Student, MBA Candidate, UCLA

Since receiving the Shirley Hui grant as a medical student, Dr. Hung has completed both of his degrees in medicine and business at UCLA, and is now finishing his residency with the intention of going into integrative oncology.

Shirley Hui East-West Medicine Conference Travel Grant

The conference and travel grant is intended to support students currently enrolled in an accredited medical school to attend a national or international conference on integrative medicine.

Awardees
Vivianne Chang – University of California, Los Angeles, BS Candidate 2014
Raymond Lam – David Geffen School of Medicine, UCLA, MD Candidate 2016
Cory Pham – David Geffen School of Medicine, UCLA, MD Candidate 2016
Emily Chien - David Geffen School of Medicine, UCLA, MD Candidate 2016
Ka Yi (Emily) Tam - David Geffen School of Medicine, MD Candidate 2016
Erik Bayona - David Geffen School of Medicine, MD Candidate 2016
Irina Lisker - University of Connecticut School of Medicine, MD Candidate 2013
Xiaoyue Mona Guo - Yale University School of Medicine, MD Candidate 2015
Flavia De Souza - Yale University School of Medicine, MD Candidate 2015
Grace E. Shih - University of Connecticut School of Medicine, MD Candidate 2014
Hanjay Wang - Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons, MD Candidate 2015
We wish to express our sincerely appreciation to those who have made generous contributions to this fund.

Please make your donations to the Shirley Hui Memorial Fund payable to:

UCLA Foundation #622680

Mail along with remit form to:
UCLA Center for East-West Medicine
1033 Gayley Avenue, Suite 111,
Los Angeles, CA 90024